God can't set a table in the wilderness. For them it was a foolish question. The wilderness is where you go to die. That is the way Egyptians thought.

The Lord didn't spread a table in the wilderness for Israel in response to impeccable faith. Far from it. His chosen people "did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power" (verse 22). That sounds familiar. "Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven" (verse 23).
