Agrarian Dreams The Paradox of Organic Farming in California

Despite believing in organic food herself, Guthman's Agrarian Dreams is a well-theorized and deeply researched critique of organic agriculture. Just as Guthman takes on anti-obesity campaigns and the bulk of food activism efforts in her subsequent books, she bravely critiques aspects of the food system that are assumed to be "good" and beyond repr

Agrarian Dreams: The Paradox of Organic Farming in ...

I completed most of the research for the first edition of Agrarian Dreams about fifteen years ago—sometime in 1998—and then began writing the dissertation that was to become this book. When it was finally published, in 2004, there were very few scholarly publications on organic agriculture and thus a good many assumptions to call into question.
