Major lessons I learned from "Just Enough Light for the Step I'm On" 1. That if a person has Jesus in his/her heart, he/she will never be in complete darkness, no matter how dark he/she conceives himself/herself to be in, like what Revelations 21:23 says, “And the city has no need of sun or moon, for the glory of God illuminates the city, and the Lamb is its light.”

JUST ENOUGH LIGHT FOR THE STEP I'M ON TRUSTING GOD IN THE TOUGH TIMES “God is teaching me to trust Him for every step I take...” Do you ever wonder how you can get where you need to go in life and move into the purpose God has for you?

Just Enough Light for the Step I'm On | Stormie Omartian

"Just Enough Light" Stormie Omartian wrote a book called, Just Enough Light for the Step I'm On, and I have to admit that I bought it merely for the message in the title. You see, I'm the type of person that likes to make an educated decision based on all the facts and research that I can come up with which is great unless we are talking about waiting on the Lord.

Mostly we have just enough light to see the next step: what we have to do in the coming hour or the following day. The art of living is to enjoy what we can see and not complain about what remains in the dark. When we are able to take the next step with the trust that we will have enough light for the step that follows, ...
