I purchased Four Nights With the Duke on impulse one night when I had nothing to read, and lived to regret it. I don't mind a bad boy hero, one who's rough around the edges and needs a major life shake-up to make him redeem himself. However, I found Vander, the featured duke in this novel, to be a crude, nonredeemable boor.

Overall, Four Nights With the Duke is an angsty and absorbing read, in which the raw emotion is well-balanced out by the humour and more tender moments.
