Taste Kate Evangelista

An ecopy of Taste was given to me by Kate Evangelista for an honest review. Well, I am not yet done reading, and that is a big, BIG sign for me. If I am very slow on reading a book it just means that it has not grabbed my attention. Why do I find Taste not interesting? 1.) Writing style. I am not a fan of the style used.

Kate Evangelista (Author of Taste) - Goodreads

Taste is like Twilight but with handsome and noble zombies, not the blood-soaked-rotten-flesh-vomiting-bile version in the Walking Dead. And, I commend Kate Evangelista for introducing me to a whole new species of zombies and their civilized culture. Overall it was a pleasurable read and I would recommend it to everyone. show more. by erleen.

Kate Evangelista's debut novel Taste transported me to a world I never thought even existed! When we think of zombies, we think of nasty, brain-eating creepazoids that take more than a whole round of AK47 bullets to go down. But in this book, the world of the Zhamvy created by Evangelista was unique, interesting, and overall, very intriguing.

Kate Evangelista debut novel Taste blew me away. It has everything I love in YA Paranormal Romance novel, a swoon worthy hero, hot chemistry between the hero and heroine, a feisty, kick butt heroine and beautiful world descriptions. Kate Evangelista has an amazing writing voice and is a master at storytelling.
